Full Name: Nguyễn Phong Vũ Family

Location: Vinh Trach Commune of Bac Lieu Province, Vietnam

Project category: Income generation

Survey Date: 04/04/2022

Background

Our Representative visited Nguyễn Phong Vũ Family. The family have two children. A 9-year-old daughter and a 10-year-old son. Both children go to school. Mr. Nguyễn's wife suffers from hip deformation, which causes difficulties in her movements. The family is leasing 11000 sqm of farmland @ AUD$550 per annum. They plant various vegetables, herbs, and watermelons. Mrs. Nguyễn sells watermelon on the side of the road under a self-made shelter. The family harvest 4500 kg of watermelons. Almost the entire income generated by watermelon harvest goes towards the rent of the land. RFL will try to find sponsor(s), who are happy to pay two years of Mr. Nguyễn's land rental. This will assist the family to get ahead financially.

. Mr. Nguyễn is a very dedicated husband and father. He works extremely hard to provide his family.

A 300–400-meter dirt and narrow path connects his house to the main road. The path becomes slippery and muddy during. He carries his son and daughter on his shoulder from home to main road so they could go to school.

Source of Income

Small farmers in Bac Lieu province hit badly by long lockdown during pandemic as they could not get their produce to the market. The family has an income between AUD$ 1,250 to 1,875 pending on seasonal conditions.

Currently family had to borrow mulch from commune chief as they have no money to purchase.

Following consultation with the family, they asked for our assistance in providing fertilizer and mulch.

Rima Foundation will provide supply fertilizer and mulch requirements to cover 4000 sqm.

RFL provided fertilizers and mulch to cover his one year requirements. He received followings as part of RFL Income Generation Program:

- 6 x 50 kg bag of DAP fertilizer
- 6 x 50 kg bag of NPK fertilizer
- 3 x 50 kg bag of Ure fertilizer
- 200 rolls of mulch
